among its members.

and attested by the secretary.

(3) The presence of at least a majority of the board’s entire membership shall constitute a quorum.

(4) A simple majority vote of all members present, where there is a properly constituted quorum, shall be necessary to transact any official business.

Sec. 5-19. Complaint Procedure.

(1) A person seeking to file a complaint for discrimination based on gender identity or sexual orientation shall state, in his/her complaint, the following:
   a.  His or her name, address and telephone number;
   b.  The name and address (if known) of the alleged actor, or provide facts sufficient to identify such person;
   c.  Full details of the material facts upon which the complaint is based;
   d.  The alleged violation;
   e.  The nature of the transaction or occurrence;
   f.  That the alleged violation(s) occurred in the course of obtaining housing, employment or public accommodations;
   g.  That a complaint concerning this same matter has not been filed with another agency or if a complaint concerning this matter has been filed with another agency, the name of the agency, and whether it has been dismissed by such agency without final judgment on the merits.

(2) The commission shall furnish a copy of the complaint to the person against whom the complaint is made.

(3) Before conducting an investigation of the complaint, the commission may attempt to negotiate a settlement of the dispute between the parties, if the commission deems that such an attempt is practicable.

(4) If the commission does not deem it practicable to attempt a pre-investigation settlement or if such settlement attempt is unsuccessful, then the commission will conduct an investigation to determine if there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the complaint. An investigation can include, but is not limited to, interviews of the parties or requests for written statements and information. Said investigation must be completed within sixty (60) days of receipt of the complaint.

(5) If the commission determines that there is no probable cause that a discriminatory action occurred, the commission shall dismiss the complaint. Written notice of the dismissal shall be served upon the complainant and alleged violator by regular U.S. mail.

(6) If it is determined, after investigation, that there is probable cause to believe the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the commission shall endeavor to eliminate the alleged unlawful practice by conference and conciliation. The terms of the conciliation agreement reached with the respondent may require them to refrain from the commission of unlawful discriminatory practices in the future and make such further provisions as may be agreed upon between the commission and the respondent. Except for the terms of the conciliation agreement, neither the commission nor any officer or employee thereof shall make public, without the written consent of the complainant and the respondent, information concerning efforts in a particular case to eliminate an unlawful practice by conference and conciliation, whether or not there is a determination of probable cause or a conciliation agreement.

(7) The commission shall furnish a copy of such signed conciliation agreement to the complainant and person charged.

(8) A conciliation agreement need not contain a declaration or finding that a violation has in fact occurred but may provide for dismissal of the complaint with or without prejudice.
(9) The commission shall have thirty (30) days after completion of the investigation to attempt to eliminate the alleged violation by conciliation agreement. If either the complainant or the person or entity charged indicates an unwillingness to participate in the conciliation process or if no conciliation process or conciliation agreement has been reached within the time provided, the commission shall hold a public hearing to determine whether or not an unlawful practice has been committed.

(10) The commission shall serve upon the respondent a statement of the charges made in the complaint and a notice of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be held not less than ten (10) days after the service of the statement of charges and not more than sixty (60) days after the service of the statement of charges. The respondent shall have the right to file an answer, to appear at the hearing in person or be represented by an attorney, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. A determination of probable cause shall in no way create a presumption of a violation.

(11) If a majority of the commissioners attending a duly constituted hearing determine that the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the commission shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue an order complying with Section 5-17(3). If the commission fails to determine that the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice, the commission shall so state and shall issue an order dismissing the complaint.

(12) In connection with an investigation of a complaint filed under this subsection, the commission or its designated representatives at any reasonable time may request access to the premises, records, and documents relevant to the complaint and the right to examine, photograph, and copy evidence, but all such evidence not otherwise presented at a public hearing shall be of a confidential nature. In conducting its investigation, the commission does not have the right to substantially interfere with the operation of the business which is the subject of the investigation.

Sec. 5-20 5-18. Enforcement of orders.

The proceeding for enforcement of an order of the human rights commission is initiated by filing a complaint in the circuit court. Copies of the complaint shall be served upon all parties of record. Within thirty (30) days after the filing of the complaint by the human rights commission, or within such further time as the court may allow, the human rights commission shall transmit to the court the original or certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including a transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. By stipulation of all parties to the proceeding, the record may be shortened. The findings of fact of the human rights commission shall be conclusive unless clearly erroneous in view of the probative and substantial evidence on the whole record. The court shall have the power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just, and to enter an order enforcing, modifying and enforcing as modified or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the human rights commission, or remanding the case to the human rights commission for further proceedings. All such proceedings shall be heard and determined by the circuit court and the court of appeals as expeditiously as possible and with lawful precedence over other matters.

(a) The proceeding for enforcement of a Human Rights Commission order regarding discrimination based on gender identity or sexual orientation shall be initiated by filing a complaint in the Circuit Court. Copies of the complaint shall be served upon all parties of record within thirty (30) days after the filing of the complaint by the commission, or within such further time as the court may allow, and the commission shall transmit to the Court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including the transcript of testimony or as otherwise may be stipulated by all parties to the proceeding and as established by KRS 344.340 and the rules of civil procedure.

(b) The proceeding for enforcement of orders regarding race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status, age, or disability shall be as established by the applicable agency to which the complaint is delegated.

SECTION TWO

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed
